

GDPR and Waiver Form 2023

We are a Community Interest Company helping neurodivergent and disabled adults to meet new people, socialise, create friendships and/or potentially find love, though we always say this isn't a guarantee. We are obliged to account for how the money we are given by funders is spent. For this reason we collect data and store it securely. Here is our GDPR and Confidentiality Policy.

Please now read the 11 points below and sign to show that you have understood them.

1. I understand all interactions/actions in person or online, on social media, on the phone (or any other place that people may communicate or meet up) made by any member or anyone associated with a member of Safe Soulmates is their own responsibility and Safe Soulmates as an organisation will not be held responsible;
2. I understand and agree that Safe Soulmates is not a support service, if I need support, I attend with them, this is online, offline as well as all other communications;
3. I understand Safe Soulmates is not able to always supervise and be present at all times at online, offline events and anything organised independently with other soulmates. It is your responsibility to bring support with you if you need it;
4. The member of Safe Soulmates and anyone associated with the member agrees that their participation in any activity are agreeing to assume any risk that is associated with participating in anything that is linked to Safe Soulmates and releases Safe Soulmates from any and all claims of damage and loss that may be as a result of participation. The release is without limitation and includes the personal injury fees, attorney's fees and any other losses that might occur to the participant;

5. The participant agrees to hold Safe Soulmates harmless against all claims of damage and loss including damage to property caused by the participant;

6. Safe Soulmates maintains that the right to refuse the participation of any member if they foresee that participation would risk damage to any party;

7. We at Safe Soulmates understand the importance to our overall health and well-being that it is vital to have times when we socialise and see others. For this reason during the Covid-19 pandemic we felt that we had to run face-to-face meet ups when it was permissible to do so by law. The participant attending any events organised by Safe Soulmates or independently from Safe Soulmates agrees to assume any risk that Covid-19 may still have to them or anyone associated with them and releases Safe Soulmates from any and all claims of damage and loss that may be as a result of participation. The release is without limitation and includes the attorney's fees and any other losses that might occur to the participant;

8. I understand that if I have any concerns, I will raise these with my primary support giver (parent, family, support organisation);

9. I understand that there are risks managing relationships online and offline;

10. I understand that soulmate members (as many friends do) may take photos at meet ups. They may share these photos in friendship groups or social media.

11. I understand that I can talk with Safe Soulmates staff about this waiver of responsibility. If you would like to discuss this, please get in contact.
